

Baldwin Downtown Revitalization Initiative

Welcome to Community Meeting #1

What is the Downtown Revitalization Initiative (DRI)?

The New York State Downtown Revitalization Initiative (DRI), now in its fourth year, is a comprehensive approach to transform communities ripe for development into vibrant communities where the next generation of New Yorkers will want to live and work. The State's ten Regional Economic Development Councils (REDCs) nominate participating communities based on the potential for transformation, with each community awarded $10 million to develop a Strategic Investment Plan and implement key catalytic projects that advance the community's vision for revitalization.

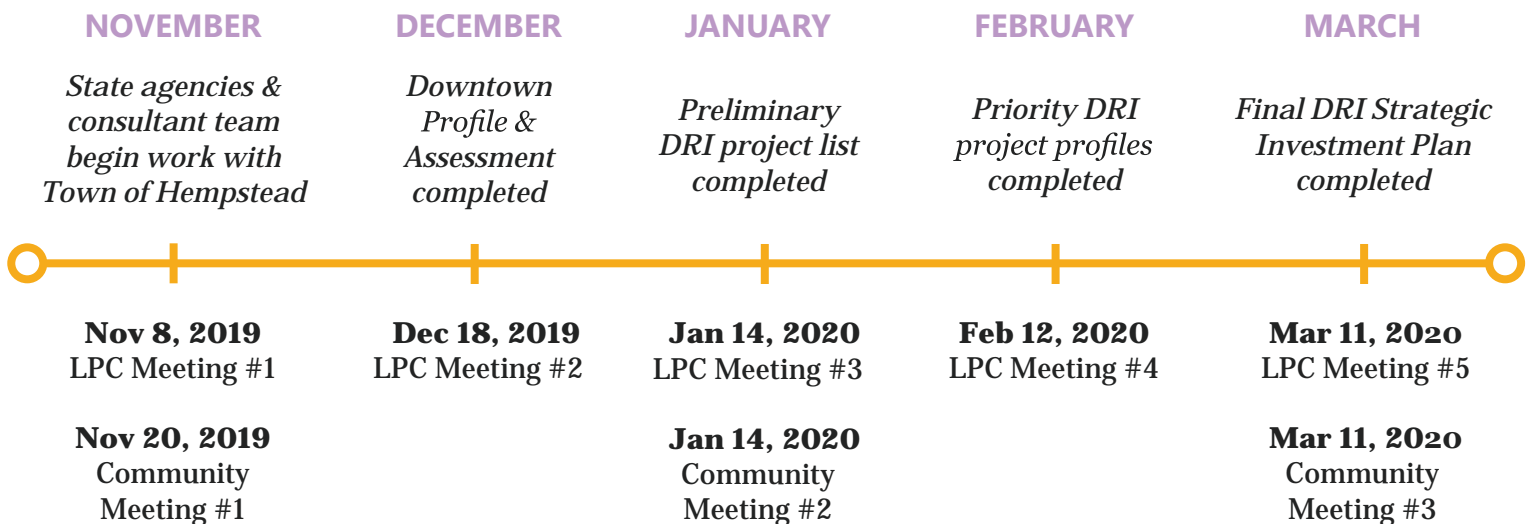

In August 2019, Baldwin, in the Town of Hempstead, was selected the Long Island region's Downtown Revitalization Initiative winner.

What kinds of downtown projects are eligible for DRI funding?

An open, community-based planning process has been designed to encourage creative and innovative approaches to downtown revitalization. Projects selected for DRI funding should strive to catalyze or continue downtown revitalization and investment in the community. Recommended projects may range in cost and scale, from small improvements to large-scale construction projects, from zoning updates to major infrastructure projects.
